"Stay awake! Be prepared." The advice is clear enough. We'd like to be vigilant. We'd like to be ready. But on its own the desire to be alert isn't necessarily enough to keep us from drifting off into a spiritual siesta. When the ultimate Advent comes--when Jesus returns--we don't want to be the one left standing alone in the field.

Advent is a time to pay attention. Jesus asks us to be ready to greet him at any hour. Especially in this month of holiday hustle and bustle, how can we stay constantly focused on welcoming Christ? St. Paul gives us a hint in today's epistle: "Put on the armor of light... Put on the Lord Jesus Christ" (Rom 13:12, 14). Just as light hinders physical sleep so too the light of Christ prevents spiritual slumber. When we invite Jesus' Spirit into our hearts, it's like keeping a vigil light flickering in the window of our souls. We may go about our business, but that expectant flame never burns out. So when Jesus comes again--even like a thief in the night--he will find us ready and waiting.

Hoy iniciamos un nuevo ciclo litúrgico; este año, leemos el Evangelio de Marcos, y encontramos la misma similitud que el año pasado al leer el evangelio de Mateo, la misma recomendación: velar, estar atentos, porque no se sabe cuándo será el momento. Sin embargo, existe un detalle importante -Marcos ubica el retorno del Señor durante la noche: "Así también velen ustedes, pues no saben a qué hora va a regresar el dueño de la casa: si al anochecer, a la medianoche, al canto del gallo o a la madrugada" (Mc 33, 35). ¿Por qué de noche o de madrugada? ¿Por qué no en pleno día? El Evangelio usa la palabra vigilantes, es decir, velar; estas dos palabras se relacionan con estar despiertos, conscientes de lo que acontece alrededor. Más interiormente, su significado espiritual podría ser más dóciles, y flexibles a la palabra de Dios, como nos lo indica la lectura del profeta Isaías.

El reto para este Primer Domingo de Adviento es abrir el corazón explícitamente al Salvador. La temporada nos ayuda a descubrir la luz de Dios en nuestra vida. ¡No estar apagados en la oscuridad del pecado! Despiertos, con los ojos abiertos esperando ardientemente, con las lámparas encendidas. Debemos ir más allá de la celebración del Nacimiento de Jesús y ver a nuestro alrededor la presencia viva del mismo, entre los pobres, los enfermos, los marginados. Jesús vive y se hace presente en la compasión que tengamos de los unos para con los otros. Deseo que en este Adviento nos preguntemos lo siguiente: ¿Qué es lo que buscamos? ¿Qué es lo que esperamos encontrar? Al responder a las preguntas descubriremos el gozo de agudizar la espera con alegría y esperanza.

EL ARBOL DE LA ESPERANZA

El Arbol de la Esperanza esta colocado en el vestíbulo de la iglesia. Tome Ud. un ornament en el que estará escrito el deseo del niño/a y lleve el regalo, sin envolver, a la oficina de la parroquia para el 12 de diciembre. Les agradecemos profundamente su generosidad. Si tiene Ud. alguna pregunta, favor de llamar a la oficina parroquial: # 212-749-0276, ext. 112.

UPDATE: TEMPORARY PROTECTED STATUS EXTENSION

Thank you for supporting the Temporary Protected Status Extension!! On October 30 our parish petition with 460+ signatures was sent to Acting Homeland Security Secretary Elaine Duke and our N.Y. Senators and Congressmen. Progress is being made.

Although the Secretary terminated TPS for Nicaragua and Haiti her decision allows those individuals to seek alternative lawful immigration status by January 5, 2019 for Nicaragua and July 22, 2019 for Haiti or arrange for their departure.

Secretary Duke has postponed the TPS determination for Honduras until July 5, 2018 in order to assess supplemental information. She called on Congress to enact a permanent solution for this matter. More information is available at www.dhs.gov or by calling DHS at 202-282-8010.

NY Rep. Nydia Velazquez has introduced congressional legislation, the American Promise Act, HR4253. This proposed act would afford these immigrants legal permanent residence and create an opportunity for citizenship. For details please go to www.velazquez.house.gov. Please continue to pray for our brothers and sisters impacted by these decisions.
