"When you have done all you have been commanded, say, 'We are unprofitable servants; we have done what we were obliged to do.'" What a humble attitude this would be! Jesus challenges us today not to boast, not to seek special praise, not to consider ourselves worthy of some great reward when we follow him. Rather, he honestly reminds us that it is simply our duty to do all we "have been commanded."

God made us. Our lives are a result of his loving initiative. Giving ourselves back to him through "the obedience of faith" (as the Second Vatican Council called it), is truly the only appropriate response. Of course we are free NOT to practice this obedience. We are free to reject God, to ignore his commandments, even to make ourselves his enemies. But nonetheless it remains true that what we ought to do is to love God and follow his ways. And Jesus suggests today that this simple obedience should be a given in our lives. Following the commandments is merely what we are obligated to do.

But, let's not forget that we are also free to do more. Because of the nature of love, we can never really exhaust it. We can always love more, serve more devotedly, give more generously. Perhaps Jesus is calling us to focus less on meeting the bare-bones requirements of Christianity, and instead to shift our efforts farther in the direction of going above and beyond the call of duty. Instead of asking what is the least I HAVE to do, we would do well to ask, what ELSE can I do? What else can I do to show my gratitude to God for all he has given me? What else can I do to serve his people and nurture the world he has made? Let us aim to become truly profitable servants.

The Peace Prayer

Lord, make me an instrument of Thy peace;
 Where there is hatred, let me sow love;
 Where there is injury, pardon;
 Where there is error, the truth;
 Where there is doubt, the faith;
 Where there is despair, hope;
 Where there is darkness, light;
 And where there is sadness, joy.

O Divine Master,
 Grant that I may not so much seek
 To be consoled, as to console;
 To be understood, as to understand;
 To be loved as to love.

For it is in giving that we receive;
 It is in pardoning that we are pardoned;
 And it is in dying that we are born to eternal life.
 Amen.

¡"Auméntanos la fe"! Tal como los apóstoles le pidieron al Señor, deberíamos hacerlo nosotros todos los días en nuestra oración. Aunque, quizás usted me diga: Yo creo en el Señor, tengo una fe grande. La respuesta es que todos tenemos el deseo de creer en él con más solidez. La fe es un don, es un regalo que recibimos al ser bautizados. Pero el compromiso es saber crecer ese regalo en el trayecto de nuestra vida. Pidamos, pues, que se nos sea dada abundantemente. Vivir en la fe es estar atentos a los signos de los tiempos, escuchando la voz de Dios, atentos siempre. Porque en medio de tantas restricciones económicas, falta de trabajo y de vivienda, se nos olvida lo principal: recordar que tenemos un Padre que nos cuida. ¿Cómo cuido mi fe? ¿De qué forma soy modelo de fe para la familia y la sociedad?

Existen personas con una fe firme en las enfermedades, las humillaciones y las penas. Las hemos visto y quizá vivimos con ellas; pueden ser nuestros abuelos, padres, hermanos, hermanas y amigos. Ellos han sabido responder admirablemente; no se han olvidado de nada de lo que el Señor nos ha dicho y hecho desde la cruz. El Papa Francisco lo explica de la siguiente manera: "El Apóstol Juan (1 Jn 5, 4) dice que la victoria sobre el mundo es nuestra fe. ¡Nuestra fe vence siempre! La fe es victoria" (homilía, el 14 de enero de 2016).
